CIRCUIT WELCOME SERVICE

Sunday September 1st, 10.45am

Bishop Street Methodist Church has been chosen to host the Circuit Welcome Service. Three ministers will be welcomed into our Circuit. Revd Andrew Farrington will become our new Superintendent, while Revd Kim Alexander and Revd Christopher Andam will be joining us from South Africa and Ghana, respectively.

Our own Revd Liam Dacre-Davis will be leading the service alongside the incoming District Chair, Revd Dr Sonia Hicks. During our worship, the changing role of Rev Ivan Bennett (Authorised Minister) will also be acknowledged whose involvement and responsibilities within the life of the Circuit have increased.

Revd Christopher Andam will also be taking up the role of Co-ordinator of the Ghanaian Methodist Fellowship, and we will be fortunate to have the Fellowship's choir join us in worship.

It will be a momentous occasion in the life of our Circuit, but also a significant responsibility for Bishop Street Methodist Church. Therefore, if you are able to help our in any way (welcoming, refreshments, etc) please do speak with Mary Gill (Senior Steward).

NEWS ABOUT MEMBERS: As many of you know, Miriam Stevenson has been heavily involved in the training of Local Preachers, not just locally but around the District. She has now been appointed as the new Chair of the Connexional Local Preachers and Worship Leaders Board of Studies, which will re-launch in the autumn following a re-configuring of its constitution. This Board works to support Bob Bartindale, the National Local Preachers' Secretary and to think about ways of improving and developing the Worship course and addressing the issues and needs of students and tutors. One of the changes from previous practice is that the board no longer needs to be chaired by a former president/vice president of conference! Please pray for wisdom and insight for Miriam as the autumn meeting is convened.

CHRISTIAN/PAGAN DIALOGUE

On Friday 13th September, 10am, there is an opportunity to take part in a dialogue session between Pagans and Christians. The intention is for this to be relaxed and conversational, with the possibility of further sessions being planned.

The event will take place at St Philip's Centre (2a Stoughton Dr. North, Leicester LE5 5UB) whose work is supported by the Northampton Methodist District.

You can talk to our own Rev'd Liam Dacre-Davis who hopes to attend, or contact the St Philip's Centre directly (admin@stphilipscentre.co.uk)

MONTHLY CELL GROUP: As we so appreciated Bishop Rowan Williams' knowledge and clarity of communication we have decided to study another of his books starting in June. It is called "Open to Judgement" This book is a collection of chapters, each written following either a lecture or sermon he had given and it addresses the challenges of living as a Christian in today's society. Anyone will be welcomed to join the group which meets on the second Wednesday of the month at 12-30 in the vestry. Please get in touch with Dee Brunning 0116 241 8742 or deebunning@yahoo.co.uk for further details
